

The Canadian Music Centre and Music BC present

“The Pros and Cons of Writing for Film” with Michael Conway Baker

Admission is FREE.

For registration and information please call:

Canadian Music Centre 604-734-4622

When: Thursday March 18, 2010 @ 11:00AM

Where: Canadian Music Centre, 837 Davie St., Vancouver, BC

About the workshop:

This workshop is part of a Career Development Series for composers working in the classical genre.

Distinguished composer Michael Conway Baker will lend his expertise to composers and lead a lively presentation and discussion on the advantages and challenges of writing for film and television. Michael C. Baker has numerous awards for his music for film and television which includes 3 Genies. The Juno award-winning composer is invested with the Order of British Columbia and is an inductee of the British Columbia Entertainment Hall of Fame.
(www.michaelconwaybaker.com)

This is the first Career Development Series targeted specifically for the classical community, and the first co-presentation by Canadian Music Centre and Music BC.

<http://www.musiccentre.ca/>

<http://www.musicbc.org/>

